WILL LEDBETTER KILLED NEAR CLAY.

The Shooting Was Done by Brownle Cordell, a Negro, Who Made His Escape.

Clay, Ky., Dec. 13 .- Will Led. Mrs. E. T. Franklin is sick with better, a farmer, was shot and killed by Brownie Cordell, negro, Sunday

> The shooting occured at Blackwells Diamond mine between this town and Providence. The quarrel was over some whisky that Cordell was to have purchased for Ledbetter and Ledbetter claims to have given the negro $1.10 with which to purchase the liquor and that the whisky had not been produced. A quarrel ensued in which Cordell fired a shot into Ledbetter's stomache, the ball going through the bowels, from which he died shortly after being taken home.

The funeral took place Tuesday at his home. He leaves a wife and two Wesley Watson celebrated his 81st children, the youngest being but a

A NIGHT RIDER CONFESSES

Union City, Teno, Dec. 14-John Ratcliff, a member of the band of night riders that killed Cap. Rankin turned States evidence to-day and gave about the same version of the killing of Rankin as former witnesses. Rateliff was indicted a year ago but had denied all connection with the night riders or knowledge of the murder until to-day, although he had been promised immunity during the former trial if he would testify for

Of Securing a Two Million Dollar Appropriation for Dam at Henderson.

Washington, Dec. 14.-Have it on good authority that the pending river and harbor bill will carry appropriations for a mumber of movable dams in the Ohio river. Strong J. pressure is being brought to bear to secure these improvements on the Upper Ohio,

Have just secured hearing for the Henderson dam before the River and Harbor committee January 18, 1910. at which hearing friends of the low er Ohio will be heard, A large delegation from Evansville will be or hand, Hon. Vance, President, and Hon. F. B. Posey, Vice President of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, will attend this hearing. Henderson is more vitally interest ed than any other city and should send a strong delegation to Wash ington on that occasion. I am making every effort to assure favor able consideration of bill introduced by myself for the erection of this dam just below Henderson, costing over two millions dollars,
